AUCTION 2010! Believe it or not we are gearing up for next year's Auction already! And the theme is..... Mardi Gras! In honor of Super Bowl winning Saints and our own resident RAGIN' CAJUN Rachael Chatham, we are planning a good old time New Orleans Style. We will need lots of CTK volunteers to pull it off so put on your thinking caps now. Please e-mail Amy Kalenbach if you are interested in helping. In particular, we are looking for volunteers to fill some key positions: Co-Chairman, Decorating Chair, Live Auction Chairs, Food and Beverage, Web site. And we always need those folks who are interested in being worker bees! Let us know where your interests and talents lie and we'll put you to work. It's not too early to start asking for contributions for businesses and services you know. We'll start filling our auction room this month. See Amy K for donation request info.

Le Bon Temps Roule !

SLOW DOWN!!!! Folks there have been numerous complaints about erratic and dangerous driving in our parking lot in the morning. Please do not cut across the middle of the lot in order to exit the premises. Please follow the traffic pattern that has been established. In the afternoons we ask that you do not park beyond the the last light pole as this causes huge back-ups.

COUGAR CARE: Is looking for a few talented adult volunteers to help out this summer! If you have a special talent and are able to share with our children, please see Ms. Isabel or Ms.

Redding. Some of the activities will still need help with are sports, music, and anything else you are talented at doing! Each theme runs four (4) days. (2-3 hours each day) Maybe you know someone that enjoys working with children. Thank you in advance for your help and interest.

Career Day: CTK's Annual Career Day will be held on March 8th. God has blessed us with many gifts. If you would like to to inspire our young scholars with your gifts please contact Mrs. Chatham at rchatham@ctkparish.org.

Artist of the Week

This week we congratulate Mari Grimm on her clay project! Mari created a clay pouch pot in her eighth grade Art elective class. After several sketches and preplanning, Mari successfully created her assignment using a variety of clay techniques, including slab rolling and clay draping. Way to go Mari!
