HONORS ASSEMBLY on March 19th! Please join us for the Honors Assembly at 10:00 a.m.
Our featured speaker will be Mayor Paul Fraim from the great city of Norfolk. Mayor Fraim is a Catholic school graduate and is a great example of how "hard work pays off".
Please join us as we honor our CTK stars.

"May your thoughts be as glad as the shamrocks. May your heart be as light as a song. May each day bring you bright, happy hours. That stay with you all the year long." Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with CTK on Wednesday, March 17th. Our students will have a "dress down" day so that we may lift other children up. All donations collected will go to ForKids, a local group dedicated to "Breaking the Cycle of Homelessness for Children and Families." $1 donation and a bit of the green on will do it!

Speaking of Green... its almost time for the PTO Plant Sale!

16-18 April! If anyone is interested in volunteering--- they can e-mail Christina Slentz at tnclslentz@cox.net

If April Showers bring May flowers, what do May flowers bring??? Pilgrims! And what do Plant Sales bring??? Happy CTK families! (Christina promises there are more goofy jokes to come folks!)

Artist of the Week

Congratulations to Courtney Donnellan and Olivia Lemma for their beautiful woven prints! We read Barbara Cooney's The Lupine Lady, and talked about God's beauty in the world. What a wonderful story to tie into our weaving and printing project! Olivia and Courtney both had great success sewing and printing to create a beautiful lupine. Well done Courtney and Olivia!

Art Dept

Looking for a few volunteers to help setup the Student Art Show. The 8th graders are hard at work getting everyone's artwork ready for the April 16th Art Show, and we need a few parents to help us set up in the gym. If you can help, email mHUDSON@CTKparish.org today! We are also in need of solid color fabric, it will be returned to you after the show. Come help and get a sneak preview of the wonderful works created by your students here at CTK!

LIBRARY NEWS: Scholastic Book Fair
April 23-30th. Get ready to have some fun and get reading!

A note from Ms. Lindey:

We have decided to have a Sock Hop in the gym on Friday, April 23 from 6-8pm. The entire school is invited to dress in their 1950's best and come enjoy an evening of 1950's music and food. We are in need of parents to volunteer to help with the evening, for example: help with decorations and set up, a DJ to play music and parents to be a presence in the gym during the dance while other parents visit the Book Fair upstairs. If you are available to help in any of these areas please contact me ASAP. If you would like decorations that can be made at home I also have some that are available.

Please come and support what promises to be a fabulous evening for us as a CTK Family!

Lets go ODU Monarchs!
Good luck Thursday
against the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame!
